

Date:	November 9, 2009
Job Title:	Pharmacy Project Consultant
Department:	Professional Services - Temporary
Location	Belleville, NJ

Position Overview

Sabal Medical is seeking a part-time clinical pharmacy professional who will be responsible for supporting a new software and hardware product trial at a hospital in the Belleville, New Jersey area.

About Sabal Medical

Sabal Medical was founded in 2006, and is headquartered at Charleston, SC. Sabal is a privately held company whose products are helping hospitals deliver medications to their patients more safely and efficiently.

Essential Job Responsibilities

The Pharmacy Project Consultant will provide configuration assistance, training and on-site operational support for Sabal Medical’s medication cart and software solution. Candidate will be responsible for channeling customer requests to Sabal corporate headquarters, maintaining daily contact with other Sabal resources as required and assuring support continuity for the customer during the trial period. Consultant will also diagnose product problems related to daily transactional processes and help to determine possible resolutions in a timely manner.

Requirements

- Quick learner - ready to learn new technologies on the job
- B.S in Pharmacy or Pharm.D. degree
- Current state licensure in at least one U.S. state
- 5+ years hospital pharmacy experience with a strong background in medication dispensing
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office 2007 (especially Excel)
- Solid computer and documentation skills
- Proven interpersonal and relationship-building skills
- Ability, flexibility and willingness to work a fragmented work schedule

Other Preferred Skills/Abilities/Experience

- Experience working in a customer relations/support role
- Experience with bar coded medication administration systems

Comments

- Travel expenses are not included as part of this assignment

NOTE: This job description is not intended to be all-inclusive. Consultant may perform other related duties as negotiated to meet the ongoing needs of the organization. Sabal Medical is an Equal Opportunity Employer.